White American Alligator

Alligator mississippiensis

Diet: Feeds on birds, fish, mammals and reptiles

Habitat: Found in lakes, rivers and swamps throughout the southeastern United States

Did You Know? White alligators are never seen in the wild. Their white color makes them more sensitive to the sun and makes hiding from predators difficult.

CLIMB ABOARD THE WRIGHT FLYER

Wright B Flyer Inc. is an all-volunteer, membership-based, not-for-profit corporation located on the Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport near Dayton, Ohio. We fly one Model B look-alike during the summer months, and our hangar doubles as a museum.

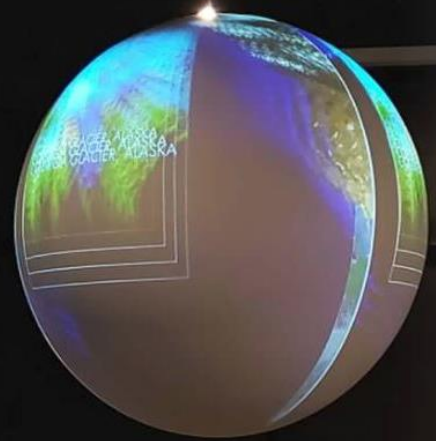

We teach children all about life. Our children teach us what life is all about.

COSI Museum of Science and Industry

COSI is a science museum and research center located in Columbus Ohio in the United States. Originally opened in 1964, COSI was relocated to a 320,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility designed by Japanese architect Arata Isozaki along a bend in the Scioto River in the Franklinton neighborhood in 1999.

Columbus Ohio

Columbus is Ohio's state capital. There is a string of parks on both sides of the Scioto River, with a huge interactive fountain and trails. On the west bank, the COSI science center offers hands-on exhibits and a planetarium. Downtown, the Columbus Museum of Art includes American and European paintings and a sculpture garden. The German Village area has restored brick houses built by 1800s settlers.

TIME FOR SOME SLEDDING!

Away we go! Both the kids and the adults had an absolute blast.

MAD RIVER MOUNTAIN

MAD RIVER MOUNTAIN IS HOME TO OHIO'S LARGEST SNOW MAKING SYSTEM. THE 120+ FAN GUNS HAVE THE ABILITY TO PUMP OVER 7000 GALLONS OF WATER PER MINUTE, COVERING 100% OF THE TERRAIN IN AS LITTLE AS 72 HOURS. THIS ENSURES THAT NO MATTER WHAT YOUR BACKYARD LOOKS LIKE, MAD RIVER IS WHITE.
